Odd Socks Day: Monday 13 November

All you need to do is wear odd socks! It is a great way to celebrate what makes us all unique in Anti-Bullying Week! Most importantly, Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It is an opportunity to encourage people to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique! There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or to buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks to your school, it could not be simpler! Odd Socks day takes place on the first day of Anti-Bullying Week each year to help raise awareness of bullying.

Children in Need: Friday 17 November

The country will be celebrating 'Children in Need' again on Friday 17th November to help raise awareness and funds for disadvantaged children. Oakhill Primary would like to support this once again.

We are asking children to come into school on Friday 17th November wearing pyjamas. Pupils can also wear Children in Need merchandise (T-shirts, headbands, socks, etc). Let your imagination run wild and help us support this wonderful charity.

We are kindly suggesting a £1 donation towards this event, however any donation will be greatly appreciated. Thank you once again for your continued support.
